

The 3 Route ID Checking Process

You must use route 1 where possible. You can only move on to route 2 if the applicant is unable to present the documents needed in route 1.

Route 1

The applicant must be able to show:

- one document from Group 1, below
- two further documents from either Group 1, or Group 2a, or 2b, below

The combination of documents presented must confirm the applicant's name and date of birth.

Route 2

Route 2 can only be used if it's impossible to process the application through Route 1.

The organisation conducting the ID check must then also use an appropriate external ID verification service to check the application.

If the applicant doesn't have any of the documents in Group 1, then they must be able to show:

- one document from Group 2a
- two further documents from either Group 2a or 2b

The combination of documents presented must confirm the applicant's name and date of birth.

Route 3

Route 3 can only be used if it's impossible to process the application through Routes 1 or 2.

For Route 3, the applicant must be able to show:

- a birth certificate issued more than 12 months after the time of birth (UK, Isle of Man and Channel Islands)
- one document from Group 2a
- three further documents from Group 2a or 2b

The combination of documents presented must confirm the applicant's name and date of birth.

If the applicant can't provide these documents, they may need to be fingerprinted.
